Revised Procedures for Selection and Induction of Honorees into the Citizens' Hall of Fame

The Mayor and City Council hereby re-establish guidelines for the selection and induction of honorees into the City of North Miami Citizens' Hall of Fame.

I. Qualifications for Eligibility.

1. Only the members of the City Council shall be eligible to nominate an individual for induction into the Citizens' Hall of Fame.

2. A nominee for induction into the Citizens' Hall of Fame must either be a current or past resident of the City of North Miami; a current or past business owner in the City; or a person who has substantially contributed to the well-being or advancement to the City of North Miami or its residents as a place to live, work or play.

3. Nomination shall be submitted in writing to the City Manager and include all supportive evidence of reasons honoree is deserving of induction.

4. The City Council shall vote on the nominee at the next regular City Council meeting.

5. Any nominee receiving a majority vote of the City Council shall be scheduled for induction. All efforts should be made to have induction ceremonies coincide with other major City events.

6. A plaque inscribed with the name of each inductee shall be hung in a designated area of city hall in order to permit public recognition for the members of the Citizens' Hall of Fame.

7. Elected officials shall not be eligible for induction during the time of their terms of office or for a period of three (3) years thereafter.

8. Posthumous nomination and induction into the Citizens' Hall of Fame shall be permitted.

9. Beginning August 2013, the Mayor and/or City Councilperson shall be limited to one nominee per term in office.
