A RESOLUTION OF THE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF NORTH MIAMI, FLORIDA, AUTHORIZING THE CITY MANAGER AND CITY ATTORNEY TO NEGOTIATE AND EXECUTE THE NORTH MIAMI BREWFEST SPONSORSHIP AGREEMENT WITH THE FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY BOARD OF TRUSTEES, IN SUBSTANTIALLY THE ATTACHED FORM, IN THE AMOUNT OF ONE HUNDRED SIXTY THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED FIFTY DOLLARS ($160,250.00); AUTHORIZING THE CITY MANAGER TO DO ALL THINGS NECESSARY TO IMPLEMENT SAID SPONSORSHIP AGREEMENT ON BEHALF OF THE CITY; PROVIDING FOR AN EFFECTIVE DATE AND FOR ALL OTHER PURPOSES.

RECOMMENDATION

That the Mayor and City Council adopt the Resolution, officially authorizing the City Manager and City Attorney to enter into negotiations with the Florida International University Board of Trustee to execute an agreement allowing the City to serve as the Title sponsor for the proposed North Miami BrewFest event, commit City funds totaling $160,250.00, and to do all things necessary to execute said agreement.

OVERVIEW

According to an economic analysis conducted by the American Brewers Association estimates indicate that at the national level, the Craft Brewing industry generated $55.7 billion in terms of revenues leading to the creation of approximately 424,000 new jobs in 2014 alone. The contribution of the Craft Brewing industry to the economy of the State of Florida is equally impressive, as the same study indicates the total economic impact of breweries accounted for over $2 billion in the state's economy and generated over 16,686 new jobs for the same year.

The Chaplin School of Hospitality and Tourism Management at the Florida International University prides itself on being at the forefront of food science and has long been respected as an incubator and knowledge base for students studying brew science and those pursuing an interest in launching their own brewery-related business. As such, the impetus for the region's first brew focused festival known as the South Florida BrewFest (as the event was previously dubbed) began back in 2014 as a small one day-event sponsored by Florida International University's Chaplain School of Hospitality and Tourism Management. The event featured over twenty of South Florida's best local breweries, brew pubs and brewing organizations, serving close to 100 different brews. Since then, the event has grown from its infancy as a mere embryonic college-sponsored initiative to what is now widely viewed as an iconic community-based festival, with ample emphasis on business incubation, marketing, as well as the incorporation of an educational component featuring lectures on: Brew Science, Food Pairing, Home Brewing, and the History of Beers.

As proposed, the North Miami BrewFest event, at the recommendation of Mayor Smith Joseph, would now proudly bear the name of its host City and garner recognition for North Miami as an iconic, pro-business, vibrant destination. The festival is scheduled for Saturday, November 19th 2016, with VIP events beginning on Friday, November 18th, 2016 at various locations throughout North Miami.

Objective 9.2 of the City's Comprehensive Plan requires that effort be made to "Increase the City's presence in the region by promoting its own unique image and strive towards making the City a recognizable tourist destination offering a range of attractions." Additionally, Policy 9.2.2 and Policy 9.2.3 further requires that the City "publicize community fairs and festivals to showcase the vibrancy of the City" and "promote public and private sector partnerships to fortify the pro-business image of the City." The proposed initiative to sponsor the 2016 North Miami BrewFest event directly satisfies the City's vision as expressly stated in the above-listed objectives and policies of the City's Comprehensive Plan, and promises to attract hundreds of visitors that will promote economic development and support local businesses.

CONCLUSION

As title sponsor, the City's name would be included on all event logos, university webpage, and marketing materials promoting the signature event. City Administration believes the festival would be beneficial in showcasing and branding the City of North Miami as a desirable destination that focuses on innovation and the advancement of food science and the arts. If approved, the resolution would also afford the City the opportunity to forge an important relationship with Florida International University as it showcases this growing industry and builds momentum for an event that may eventually culminate into a major tourist draw for the City. Ongoing efforts over time may earn North Miami the reputation of becoming the "brew capital" of the South. As such, staff respectfully requests that the Mayor and Council adopt the proposed resolution.
