PRE-REGISTRATION & REFUND POLICY

All registrations must be setup in person at the Parks and Recreation office. To qualify for 15% discount on entire summer prepaid registration, payment must be made in the form of cash, cashiers check, money order, or online credit card payment. To qualify for two installment with 5% discount customers must: 1) setup account and registration in person at the Parks and Recreation office. 2) make first payment online with valid credit card to activate automatic payment option. Credit card will be scheduled for automatic payment on June 5, 2009 for final summer camp payment.

Any declined credit card or returned payments will result in removal from summer camp sessions III & IV. Payees will be notified of non-payment and have 15 business days to submit final payment in the form of cash, cashiers check, money order, or valid online payment with credit card (online only).

Refunds will be credited to customer's account on a per session basis. All refund requests must be submitted in writing prior to May 21, 2009. No refunds will be credited after May 21, 2009.
