

National Poetry Month

Public Library

835 NE 132 Street
North Miami, FL 33161

Thursday, April 11, 2013 | 6:30 p.m.

Actor/Poet David Mills performs as Langston Hughes

The North Miami Public Library is pleased to present award-winning poet David Mills performing the works of Langston Hughes in celebration of National Poetry Month.

Actor and writer David Mills' one-person dramatic rendition of Langston Hughes's poems and short stories journeys through the Harlem Renaissance—from the 1920s through the 1960s. David Mills studied economics and theater at Yale before spending three years as Writer-in-Residence at Langston Hughes's landmark home. Author of a collection of poems, The Dream Detective, he has performed on stages around the country and overseas.

This free event is sponsored by the Oscar Thomas Foundation and the Friends of the North Miami Public Library.

For more information, please call the Library at 305-891-5535 or visit northmiamifl.gov/nomilibrary.