Book of the Month:

Black and Blue

by Anna Quindlen

This powerfully written story grips readers from the very first page. Fran and Bobby are crazy about one another from the moment they first meet, but his violent nature reveals itself even before they are married. Later, the “accidents” become more and more frequent and harder to hide: a broken collarbone, a split lip, a black eye. Finally, Fran escapes the abusive marriage, but by then she is damaged both inside and out. This novel is about a shattered family and a strong woman determined to rebuild her life.
