Immediate family ties include (whether by blood, marriage or adoption) the spouse, parent (including a stepparent), child (including a stepchild), brother, sister (including a stepbrother or stepsister), grandparent, grandchild, and in-laws of a covered person.

"(c) Persons Covered. The conflict-of-interest provisions of paragraph (b) of this section apply to any person who is an employee, agent, consultant, officer, or elected official or appointed official of the participating jurisdiction, State recipient, or subrecipient which are receiving HOME funds"

Exception

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development may grant an exception to these provisions and allow Ms. Taisha Pierre to receive assistance from the HOME-ARP Program, providing the City publicly discloses the nature of the potential conflict in addition to retrieving an opinion from the City Attorney that the interest(s) for which we are seeking the exception is not in violation of State or local law.

The potential conflict of interest in this case arises from the fact that Ms. Taisha Pierre is an employee of the City of North Miami, and the City is a recipient of HOME funding.

The City Attorney's office has reviewed all documentation for this application and issued a legal opinion regarding the potential conflict(s) of interest. In their opinion, the application of Ms. Taisha Pierre, does not violate State or local law or any City administrative policies.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Alberte Bazile, Housing and Social Services Director
FROM: PaulMarie E. Bobb, Esq., Assistant City Attorney
DATE: November 15, 2024
RE: Conflict of Interest Legal Opinion for Taisha Pierre

---

BACKGROUND

Taisha Pierre, an eligible applicant, has submitted an application for the City of North Miami HOME Investment Partnerships American Rescue Plan Program (HOME-ARP). Ms. Pierre is a Part-Time Tec in the City of North Miami City Clerk Office. Ms. Pierre is seeking a legal opinion regarding her eligibility to participate in the Program and whether there is a conflict of interest and/or ethics violation as set forth in the City of North Miami Conflict of Interest and Code of Ethics Ordinance, the Miami-Dade County Conflict of Interest and Code of Ethics Ordinance, or the State of Florida's Conflict of Interest guidelines

ANALYSIS

Taisha Pierre may participate in the City of North Miami HOME Investment Partnerships American Rescue Plan Program (HOME-ARP).

Local Law: The City of North Miami's Conflict of Interest and Code of Ethics Ordinance, section 2-316(e) provides: "No person included in the terms defined in subsections 2-316(b)(1)-(6) and in subsection 2-316(b)(9) shall enter into a business transaction with any person or entity that has a contract with the city or any shareholder, partner, officer, director or employee of such contractor, unless the business transaction is an arm's length transaction made in the ordinary course of business." Further, Miami-Dade County's Conflict of Interest and Code of Ethics Ordinance, Section 2-11.1(c) provides that this section "shall not be construed to prevent any employee as [...] from entering into any contract, individually or through a firm, corporation, partnership or business entity in which the employee or any member of his or her immediate family has a controlling financial interest [...] as long as (1) entering into the contract would not interfere with the full and faithful discharge by the employee of his or her duties to the County, (2) the employee has not participated in determining the subject contract requirements or awarding the contract, and (3) the employee's job responsibilities and job description will not require him or her to be involved with the contract in any way, including, but not limited to, its enforcement, oversight, administration, amendment, extension, termination or forbearance." Since Mr. Vazquez's job responsibilities with the Development Services Department do not require participation in any aspect of his contract, he may contract with the City of North Miami to participate in the Tenant-Based Rental Assistance Program.

State Law: Additionally, the Florida Statute outlining standards of conduct for public officers, employees of agencies, and local government attorneys, expressly exempts such a transaction from its conflict-of-interest provisions. Section 112.313, Florida Statutes provides that no person shall be held in violation of the conflict-of-interest provisions if: "(i) The public officer or employee purchases in a private capacity goods or services, at a price and upon terms available to similarly situated members of the general public, from a business entity which is doing business with his or her agency. (j) The public officer or employee in a private capacity purchases goods or services from a business entity which is subject to the regulation of his or her agency and: 1. The price and terms of the transaction are available to similarly situated members of the general public; and 2. The officer or employee makes full disclosure of the relationship to the agency head or governing body prior to the transaction.” Given that Mr. Vazquez’s job responsibilities do not intersect with his contract within the program, the transaction would fall within the exemption outlined in the Florida Statute.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, unless and until legislatively or judicially determined otherwise, it is the opinion of this office that Taisha Pierre’s participation in the City of North Miami HOME Investment Partnerships American Rescue Plan Program (HOME-ARP) would not violate the City of North Miami Conflict of Interest and Code of Ethics Ordinance, the Miami-Dade County Conflict of Interest and Code of Ethics Ordinance, nor the State of Florida’s Conflict of Interest guidelines. Therefore, Ms. Pierre is eligible to participate in the HOME Investment Partnerships American Rescue Plan Program (HOME-ARP).
