If a special magistrate is unable to hear a case, the case may be assigned to another special magistrate.

(d) The city council, at its sole discretion, may remove any special magistrate from service at any time.

(e) To be eligible for service as a special magistrate, a person must either:

(1) Be a retired Florida judge; or

- (2) Be a member in good standing of the Florida Bar for at least five (5) years; and
- (3) Have a background in local government.

See. 2-97. Compensation.

~~Subject to compliance with recordkeeping and other documentation requirements of the city manager or his designee, a special magistrate shall be compensated at a rate commensurate with the level of experience and qualifications.~~

See. 2-98. Powers.

~~The special magistrate shall have the power to:~~

- (1) Adopt rules for the conduct of its hearings;
- (2) Hear appeals by alleged violators from civil violation tickets; affirm in whole or in part, or reverse, the charge of violation; and affirm or modify the order of corrections and fine levied in the ticket;
- (3) Subpoena and swear alleged violators and witnesses to its hearings. Subpoenas may be served by the police department of the city;
- (4) Subpoena evidence to the hearing;
- (5) Take testimony under oath;
- (6) Issue orders having the force of law commanding whatever stages necessary to bring a violation into compliance.

See. 2-99. Enforcement procedures; hearings; selection of quasi-judicial body.

~~(a) It shall be the duty of the code compliance officer to initiate enforcement proceedings of the various codes. The special magistrate shall not have the power to initiate such enforcement proceedings.~~

~~(b) Except as provided in subsections (d)(1) or (2) of this section, if a violation of any code is found, the code compliance officer shall notify the violator and give him a reasonable time to correct the violation. Should the violation continue beyond the time specified for correction, the code compliance officer shall notify the special magistrate and request a hearing.~~

~~(c) The special magistrate shall conduct hearings on a regularly scheduled monthly basis or more frequently upon request of the city manager or the city manager's designee. Written notice of such hearing shall be hand delivered or posted or mailed as provided in F.S. § 162.12, to the violator. At the option of the special magistrate, notice may be served by publication as provided in F.S. § 162.12.~~

~~Definition.~~ A recurring violation is a violation of a provision of the Code or an ordinance which:

- ~~(1) Was previously cited against a respondent;~~

- (2) Was corrected (or otherwise brought into compliance) without an order being entered reciting the existence of the violation; and
- (3) The same violation was allowed to again occur on the same property by the same respondent. Generally speaking, a recurring violation is a violation which recurs or one that is not corrected by the time specified for correction by the code inspector. And if the code inspector has reason to believe a recurring violation has occurred, the code inspector shall notify the violator and give the violator a reasonable time to correct the violation. Where the inspector alleges a recurring violation, the city shall present evidence at the violation hearing to support the allegation that the violation is a recurring violation. The special magistrate may take "judicial notice" of matters in previous cases and in other city files.

Notice/fines. If the alleged violation is a recurring violation, the notice of hearing must recite that the alleged violation is a recurring violation, and if the property is again brought into compliance before the hearing, the special magistrate shall make a determination that future findings of the same violation shall make said violations eligible to be "fined" in the amount of repeat violations. The notice of hearing is in addition to the notice that the code inspector shall provide to the violator.

Evidence. If the alleged violation is a recurring violation, the city shall present evidence at the violation hearing to support the allegation that the violation is a recurring violation. The special magistrate may take "judicial notice" of matters in previous cases and other city files. Moreover, the special magistrate has discretion to enter a "recurring order," which order(s) appears in substantially the same form as attached hereto in "Composite Exhibit A."

- (d) Notification of violator; request for hearing; repeat violations; etc.
- (1) If the code compliance officer has reason to believe a violation or the condition causing the violation presents a serious threat to the public health, safety or welfare or if the violation is irreparable or irreversible in nature, the code compliance officer shall make a reasonable effort to notify the violator and may immediately notify the special magistrate and request a hearing.
- (2) If a repeat violation is found, the code inspector shall notify the violator but is not required to give the violator a reasonable time to correct the violation. The code inspector, upon notifying the violator of a repeat violation, shall notify the special magistrate and request a hearing. The special magistrate, through city staff, shall schedule a hearing and shall provide notice pursuant to F.S. § 162.12. The case may be presented to the special magistrate even if the repeat violation has been corrected prior to the hearing, and the notice shall so state. The term "repeat violation" means a violation of a provision of a code or ordinance by a person whom the special magistrate, has previously found to have violated the same provision within five (5) years prior to the violation.

(e) A code compliance officer is defined as any authorized agent or employee of the city whose duty it is to ensure code compliance. Such term may be used interchangeably with code inspector or enforcement officer.

(f) None of the provisions contained in this division shall be considered exclusive. The code enforcement official or code compliance officer shall have the option to use any method provided by the Code of Ordinances or law to enforce the provisions of the various city codes. Nothing contained in this division shall prohibit the city council from enforcing its codes by any other means.

See. 2-100. Hearings.

(a) Upon request of the code compliance officer, or at such other times as may be necessary, the special magistrate may call hearings. Minutes shall be kept of all hearings and all hearings and proceedings shall be open to the public. The city council shall provide clerical and administrative personnel as may be reasonably required for the proper performance of the special magistrate's duties.

(b) Each case before the special magistrate shall be presented by a code compliance officer or member of the administrative staff of the city. The city attorney or his designee shall serve as legal counsel to the city in the defense of any appeals.

(c) The special magistrate shall proceed to hear the cases on the agenda for that day. The special magistrate shall take testimony from the code compliance officer or staff member and alleged violator. All testimony shall be under oath and shall be recorded and may be transcribed at the expense of the violator. Each party shall have the right to call and examine witnesses, to introduce exhibits, to cross examine opposing witnesses on any matter relevant to the issues, to impeach any witness and to rebut the evidence against the witness. Formal rules of evidence shall not apply, but fundamental due process shall be observed and govern the proceedings. If the city prevails in prosecuting a case before the special magistrate, the city shall be entitled to recover all costs incurred in prosecuting the case.

(d) At the conclusion of the hearing, the special magistrate shall issue findings of fact, based on evidence of record and conclusions of law, and shall issue an order affording the proper relief consistent with powers granted in this division. The order may include a notice that it must be complied with by a specified date and that a fine may be imposed and, under the conditions specified in section 2-101, the cost of repairs may be included along with the fine, if the order is not complied with by such date. A certified copy of such order may be recorded in the public records of the county and shall constitute notice to any subsequent purchasers, successors in interest, or assigns if the violation concerns real property, and the findings therein shall be binding upon the violator and, if the violation concerns real property, any subsequent purchasers, successors in interest, or assigns. If an order is recorded in the public records pursuant to this subsection and the order is complied with by the date specified in the order, an order shall be issued acknowledging compliance which shall be recorded in the public records. A hearing is not required to issue such an order acknowledging compliance.

See. 2-101. Fines; costs of repair.

(a) The special magistrate, upon notification by the code compliance officer that a previous order of the special magistrate has not been complied with by the set time, or upon finding that a repeat violation has been committed, may order the violator to pay a fine in an amount specified in this section for each day the violation continues past the date set by the special magistrate for compliance or in the case of a repeat violation, for each day the repeat violation continues beginning with the date the repeat violation is found to have occurred by the code compliance officer. In addition, if the violation is a violation described in subsection 2-99(d)(1), the special magistrate shall notify the city council, which may make all reasonable repairs which are required to bring the property into compliance and charge the violator with the reasonable cost of the repairs along with the fine imposed pursuant to this section. If a finding of a violation or repeat violation has been made as provided in this part, a hearing shall not be necessary for issuance of the order imposing the fine. A fine imposed pursuant to this section shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) per day for a first violation and shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) per day for a repeat violation and, in addition, may include all costs of repairs pursuant to this subsection. In determining the amount of the fine, if any, the special magistrate shall consider the following factors:

- (1) The gravity of the violation;
- (2) Any actions taken by the violator to correct the violation; and
- (3) Any previous violations committed by the violator.

(b) The special magistrate may reduce a fine imposed pursuant to this section.

See. 2-102. Liens.

(a) A certified copy of an order imposing a fine may be recorded in the public records and thereafter shall constitute a lien against the land on which the violation exists and upon any other real or personal property owned by the violator; and, upon petition to the circuit court may be enforced in the same manner as a court judgment by the sheriffs of this state, including execution and levy against the personal property, but such order shall not be deemed otherwise to be a judgment of a court except for enforcement purposes. A fine imposed pursuant to this division shall continue to accrue until the violator comes into compliance or until judgment is rendered in a suit filed pursuant to this section, whichever occurs first. A lien arising from a fine imposed pursuant to this section runs in favor of the city council and the city council or its designee, may execute a satisfaction or release of lien entered pursuant to this section. The city may also recover reasonable attorney's fees and court costs in connection with such enforcement actions. After three (3) months from the filing of any such lien which remains unpaid, the city council may authorize the city attorney to foreclose on the liens or to sue to recover a money judgment for the amount of the lien plus accrued interest and costs.

(b) No lien provided for by this section shall continue for a longer period than twenty (20) years after the certified copy of an order imposing a fine has been recorded, unless within that time an action is commenced pursuant to F.S. § 162.09(3) in a court of competent jurisdiction. In an action to foreclose on a lien or for money judgment, the prevailing party is entitled to recover all costs, including a reasonable attorney's fee, that it incurs in the action. The city council shall be entitled to collect all costs incurred in recording and satisfying a valid lien. The continuation of the lien effected by the commencement of the action shall not be good against creditors or subsequent purchasers for valuable consideration without notice, unless a notice of lis pendens is recorded.

(c) No lien created pursuant to the provisions of this part may be foreclosed on real property which is a homestead under § 4, Art. X of the State Constitution. The money judgment provisions of this section shall not apply to real property or personal property which is covered under § 4(a), Art. X of the State Constitution.

An aggrieved party, including the city council, may appeal a final administrative order of the special magistrate to the circuit court. An appeal shall be filed within thirty (30) days of the date of the execution of the order to be appealed. DIVISION 5.1. SUPPLEMENTAL CODE ENFORCEMENT PROCEDURE, CITATIONS TO COUNTY COURT

See. 2-105. Enforcement of ordinances; code enforcement officers; citation for civil infraction.

(a) As used in this section, "code enforcement officer" means any designated employee or agent of the city whose duty it is to enforce codes and ordinances enacted by the city.

(b) There are hereby designated certain employees and agents of the city as code enforcement officers for the purpose of this division. Employees or agents hereby designated as code enforcement officers include, but are not limited to, code inspectors, building and zoning director, building official, code enforcement officers, zoning and code administrator, police officers of the city, animal control officers of the city.

(e) [Notice; citations; etc.]

(1) A code enforcement officer is authorized to issue a citation to a person when, based upon personal investigation, the officer has reasonable cause to believe that the person has committed a civil infraction in violation of a duly enacted code or ordinance and that the county court will hear the charge.

(2) Prior to issuing a citation, a code enforcement officer shall provide notice to the person that the person has committed a violation of a code or ordinance and shall establish a reasonable time period within which the person must correct the violation. Such time period shall be no more than thirty (30) days. If, upon personal investigation, a code enforcement officer finds that the person has not corrected the violation within the time period, a code enforcement officer may issue a citation to the person who has committed the violation. A code enforcement officer does not have to provide the person with a reasonable time period to correct the violation prior to issuing a citation and may immediately issue a citation if a repeat violation is found or if the code enforcement officer has reason to believe that the violation presents a serious threat to the public health, safety, or welfare, or if the violation is irreparable or irreversible.

(3) A citation issued by a code enforcement officer shall be in a form prepared by the city attorney and shall contain:

- a. The date and time of issuance.
- b. The name and address of the person to whom the citation is issued.
- c. The date and time the civil infraction was committed.
- d. The facts constituting reasonable cause.
- e. The number or section of the code or ordinance violated.

- i. The applicable civil penalty if the person elects not to contest the citation.
- j. A conspicuous statement that if the person fails to pay the civil penalty within the time allowed, or fails to appear in court to contest the citation, he shall be deemed to have waived his right to contest the citation and that, in such case, judgment may be entered against the person for an amount up to the maximum civil penalty.

(4) The attached form of citation is hereby approved, subject to any revision required by the Chief Judge of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit.

(d) After issuing a citation to an alleged violator, a code enforcement officer shall deposit the original citation and one (1) copy of the citation with the county court.

See. 2-106. Procedure; supplemental.

(a) The procedures for implementing the provision of section 2-105 are as follows, and it is hereby provided, as to enforcement under said section 2-105, that:

- (1) A violation of a code or an ordinance is a civil infraction.
- (2) The maximum civil penalty for each violation is five hundred dollars ($500.00).
- (3) A civil penalty of fifty dollars ($50.00) shall be imposed if the person who has committed the civil infraction does not contest the citation and pays same under section 2-105(c)(3)i. above, unless otherwise provided in section 2-107.
- (4) A code enforcement officer shall only issue a citation upon reasonable cause to believe that a person has committed an act in violation of a code or an ordinance.
- (5) A citation issued hereunder shall be subject to contest in the county court.
- (6) Such additional procedures and provisions as are necessary to provide for the enforcement of a code or ordinance under the provisions of this section shall be those which are utilized under Article III "Animal Control" of Chapter 4, "Animals" of the City Code.

(b) Any person who willfully refuses to sign and accept a citation issued by a code enforcement officer shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in F.S. § 775.082 or F.S. § 775.083.

(c) The provisions of this section shall not apply to the enforcement pursuant to F.S. §§ 553.79 and 553.80 of building code adopted pursuant to F.S. § 553.73 as they apply to construction, provided that a building permit is either not required or has been issued by the city. For the purposes of this subsection, "building codes" means only those codes adopted pursuant to F.S. § 553.73.

(d) The provisions of this section are an additional and supplemental means of enforcing municipal codes or ordinances and may be used for the enforcement of any code or ordinance. Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit the city from enforcing its codes or ordinances by any other means.

(e) The city manager, or his designee, shall determine, in his discretion, on a case by case basis, as to whether the supplemental enforcement method provided by this section shall be utilized. The police chief, deputy police chiefs, building and zoning director, building official and zoning and code administrator shall be designees of the city manager hereunder, unless otherwise provided by the city manager. These enforcement methods may include, but are not limited to, the issuance of a citation, a summons, or a notice to appear before the county court, or arrest for violation of municipal ordinances as provided for in Chapter 901, Florida Statutes. Unless otherwise specifically authorized and provided for by law, a person convicted of violating a municipal ordinance may be sentenced to pay a fine, not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00), and may be sentenced to a definite term of imprisonment, not to exceed sixty (60) days, in a municipal detention facility or other facility as authorized by law.

The request must be mailed or delivered to the address indicated on the civil violation ticket not later than ten (10) days after the service of the ticket.

(d) If the named violator, after notice, fails to pay the civil violation ticket and correct the violation within the time specified or fails to timely request an administrative hearing before a special magistrate, such failure shall constitute a waiver of the violator's right to an administrative hearing before the special magistrate. A waiver of the right to administrative hearing shall be treated as an admission of the violation, and penalties shall be assessed pursuant to the amount stated in the civil violation ticket.

See. 2-112. — Schedule and conduct of administrative hearing.

(a) Upon receipt of the named violator's timely request for an administrative hearing pursuant to this division, the code enforcement clerk or designee shall set the matter down for a hearing on the next available regularly scheduled hearing date or as soon thereafter as possible.

(c) The special magistrate shall conduct hearings on a regularly scheduled monthly basis or more frequently upon request of the city manager or city manager's designee.

(f) Each case before a special magistrate shall be presented by the city attorney or city attorney's designee.

(g) The hearing is not bound by the formal rules of evidence, but fundamental due process shall be observed and govern the proceedings. Any relevant evidence shall be admitted if the special magistrate finds it competent and reliable, regardless of any common law or statutory rule to the contrary.

(h) Each party shall have the right to call and examine witnesses, to introduce exhibits, to cross examine opposing witnesses on any matter relevant to the issues, to impeach any witness and to rebut the evidence against the witness.

(i) The special magistrate shall make findings of fact based on the evidence presented. In order to uphold the decision of the code enforcement officer, the special magistrate must find that the greater weight of the evidence shows the existence of a code violation and that the named violator committed or was responsible for the violation. The special magistrate shall either affirm, or reverse the determination of the code enforcement officer as to the issuance of the civil violation ticket. If the special magistrate reverses the determination of the code enforcement officer and finds the named violator not responsible for the alleged violation on the ticket, the named violator shall not be liable for the payment of any civil penalty unless the city successfully appeals the ruling of the special magistrate. If the decision of the special magistrate is to affirm the code enforcement officer's determination of violation and finds the violator guilty, the following elements may be included in the special magistrate's decision:

- (1) The amount of the civil penalty;
- (2) Reasonable costs and expenses of the administrative hearing; and
- (3) The date by which the violation must be corrected to prevent a continuing violation.

(j) If the violator is found guilty of the violation, the violator may be held liable for the reasonable costs and expenses of the administrative hearing at the discretion of the special magistrate.

(k) The special magistrate shall have the power to:

- (1) Adopt procedures for the conduct of hearings;
- (2) Subpoena alleged violators and witnesses for hearings; subpoenas may be served by the police department or such other persons authorized to deliver subpoenas;

finds no probable cause to believe that a violation has been committed, the city attorney shall dismiss the complaint with the issuance of a report to the complainant and the alleged violator. If the city attorney finds from the preliminary investigation probable cause to believe that a violation has been committed, notification, via certified mail, shall be made to the complainant and the alleged violator (otherwise known as the respondent), in writing. The city attorney may conduct such further investigation as deemed necessary. The city manager, upon consultation with the city attorney, may take such personnel action and may enter into such stipulations and settlements as to be just and in the best interest of the citizens of North Miami.

(c) Investigations. Investigations shall be conducted jointly by the city attorney and the city manager, or by any other person or agency so designated by the city attorney. (g) {Resolution of the complaint.} Upon completion of any investigation, the city attorney shall make proposed recommended findings of facts and conclusions of law, and the city manager shall enter a public report and order as to whether any provision of this chapter has been violated. The city manager may also assess a fine and the costs of the investigation.
