The CRA agrees to furnish or approve, in a timely manner, information required by the Consultant and to make payments to the Consultant in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement

4. Compensation and Method of Payment

4.1 Compensation for the services provided by Consultant to the CRA shall be based on the fee provided in the Proposal and by this reference made a part hereof; provided, however, in no event shall the fee exceed Forty Seven Thousand Five Hundred Fifty Dollars ($47,550) and shall be allocated to each site as set forth in the Proposal; provided, further, that the fee for each site shall not exceed the fee set forth in the Proposal. With respect to the procedures for payment, the CRA and Consultant agree to comply with and be bound by the provisions of Part VII, Chapter 218, Florida Statutes, entitled the Local Government Prompt Payment Act.

5. Changes in Scope of Work. CRA may request changes that would increase, decrease or otherwise modify the Scope of Work to be provided under this Agreement. Such changes must be contained in a written amendment, executed by the parties hereto, with the same formality and with equality and dignity prior to any deviation from the terms of this Agreement including the approval of the CRA Board, if applicable.

6. Termination.

6.1 Termination by the Consultant. The Consultant may terminate the Agreement if the CRA fails to make a payment as required by the Agreement followed by written notice thereof from Consultant to CRA and CRA's continued failure to make such payment for fifteen (15) days following the receipt of such notice. If the Consultant terminates the Agreement as set forth in the previous sentence, the Consultant shall be entitled to recover from the CRA payment for the Scope Work executed up to the date of termination but shall not be entitled to any other damages including, but not limited to, consequential and/or punitive damages. Any termination or purported termination by the Consultant for any reason other than CRA's nonpayment shall be void thereby entitling the CRA to its rights and remedies available at law and in equity.

6.2 Termination by the CRA for Cause. The CRA may terminate this Agreement if the Consultant:

6.2.1 Persistently or repeatedly refuses or fails to follow CRA's directions relative to the performance of the Scope of Work including, but not limited to, failing to perform the Scope of Work or any portion thereof within agreed upon time frames;

6.2.2 Persistently disregards laws, ordinances, or rules, regulations or orders of a public authority having jurisdiction; or

6.2.3 Otherwise materially breaches any provision of the Agreement Documents.

When any of the above reasons exist, the CRA may without prejudice to any other rights or remedies and after giving the Consultant seven (7) days' written notice, terminate this Agreement and the employment of the Consultant. The Consultant shall not be entitled to receive payment for the Scope of Work completed until the remainder of the Scope of Work is finished and, in addition to any other rights available to the CRA at law or in equity, the Consultant shall be liable to CRA for all reasonable excess completion costs and costs to correct as a result of said termination.

6.3 Termination by the CRA for Convenience. Notwithstanding anything in the Agreement to the contrary, CRA shall have the right, for whatever reason and in its sole discretion, to terminate the Agreement without penalty or liability by providing the Consultant with seven (7) days written notice thereof. Upon such termination, this Agreement shall be null and void, except that Consultant shall be entitled to payment for the Scope Work executed up to the date of termination. Any of Consultant's then outstanding and/or unfulfilled duties and/or obligations under the Agreement accruing prior to such termination shall survive the termination of the Agreement. Consultant acknowledges and agrees that Consultant shall not be entitled to, and hereby waives any claims for, any damages in the event that the CRA exercises its termination right hereunder including, but not limited to, any consequential or punitive damages.

7. Insurance. The Consultant shall purchase and maintain insurance as follows.

7.1 Worker's Compensation Insurance coverage in accordance with Florida statutory requirements.

7.2 Commercial General Liability Insurance coverage with limits of no less than $1,000,000 per occurrence and $2,000,000 in the aggregate, which policy shall include coverage of the contractual liabilities contained in this Agreement.

7.3 Professional Liability (Errors and Omissions) Insurance coverage with minimum limit of $1,000,000 covering any errors or omissions of the Consultant in the performance of the Scope of Work; the Self Insured Retention shall not exceed $25,000. If the self-insured retention (SIR) or deductible exceeds $25,000, the CRA reserves the right, but not the obligation, to review and request a copy of Consultant's most recent annual report or audited financial statement.

Certificates of insurance from insurers acceptable to the CRA shall be delivered to the CRA upon execution of this Agreement. Only with respect to commercial general liability insurance, the certificates shall (a) name the CRA as an additional insured and loss payee and (b) contain a provision that coverages afforded under the policies will not be canceled or allowed to expire until at least 30 days' prior written notice has been given to the CRA. Failure of the Consultant to obtain and maintain required insurance shall be grounds for termination of the Agreement by the CRA. Consultant shall require any subconsultants who are preparing plans and specifications to provide professional liability insurance with the same insurance coverage as set forth above.

8. Indemnification. In consideration of the entry of this Agreement, and to the extent permitted by Chapter 725, Florida Statutes, as may be amended, the Consultant agrees to indemnify, protect, defend, and hold harmless the CRA its members, managers, officers, employees, consultants, and agents from liabilities, damages, losses, and costs including, but not limited to reasonable attorney's fees at both the trial and appellate levels to the extent caused by the negligence, recklessness, or intentionally wrongful conduct of the Consultant and other persons employed or utilized by the Consultant in the performance of the Scope of Work. The foregoing indemnity is limited to $1,000,000 per occurrence, which monetary limitation on the extent of the indemnification both parties acknowledge and agree bears a reasonable commercial relationship to the Agreement; provided, however, that the Consultant's indemnity obligations hereunder are not limited by the availability of insurance proceeds. In the event that any claims are brought or actions are filed against the CRA with respect to the indemnity contained herein, the Consultant agrees to defend against any such claims or actions regardless of whether such claims or actions are rightfully or wrongfully brought or filed. To the extent this indemnification clause or any other indemnification clause in this Agreement does not comply with Chapter 725, Florida Statutes, as may be amended, this provision and all aspects of the Contract Documents shall hereby be interpreted as the parties' intention for the indemnification clauses and Contract Documents to comply with Chapter 725, Florida Statutes, as may be amended.

9. Miscellaneous

9.1 Ownership of Documents. All documents, media and work product of any kind whatsoever prepared by the Consultant pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement are and shall remain the exclusive property of the CRA. Upon request of the CRA and/or upon the termination or completion of this Agreement, Consultant shall promptly deliver to the CRA all or any portion of the above referenced documents, media and work product including the tapes or discs relating thereto. Consultant further acknowledges that CRA may post any of such documents, media and work product on the CRA's website. Such documents may be posted by CRA without the prior authorization of Consultant. No additional fee or compensation will be paid to Consultant by CRA for such posting.

9.2 Records. Consultant shall keep books and records and require any and all subconsultants to keep books and records as may be necessary in order to record complete and correct accurate records with respect to this engagement. Such books and records will be available at all reasonable times for examination and audit by CRA and shall be kept for a period of six (6) years after the completion of all work to be performed pursuant to this Agreement, unless contacted by CRA and advised such records must be kept for a longer period. Consultant shall further be required to respond to the reasonable inquiries of successor Consultant and allow successor Consultant to review Consultant'S working papers related to matters of continuing accounting, reporting or auditing significance. Incomplete or incorrect entries in such books and records will be grounds for disallowance by CRA of any fees or expenses based upon such entries.

9.3 Independent Contractor. This Agreement does not create an employee/employer relationship between the parties. It is the intent of the parties that Consultant is an independent contractor under this Agreement and not the CRA's employee for all purposes, including but not limited to, the application of the Fair Labor Standards Act minimum wage and overtime payments, Federal Insurance Contribution act, the Social Security Act, the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, the provision of the Internal Revenue Code, the State Workers Compensation Act, and the State unemployment insurance law. Consultant shall retain sole and absolute discretion in the judgment of the manner and means of carrying out Consultant's activities and responsibilities hereunder. Consultant agrees that it is a separate and independent enterprise from the CRA, that it has full opportunity to find other business, that it has to make its own investment in its business, and that it will utilize a professional level of skill necessary to perform the services. This Agreement shall not be construed as creating any joint employment relationship between Consultant and the CRA and the CRA will not be liable for any obligation incurred by Consultant, including by not limited to unpaid minimum wages and/or overtime premiums.

9.4 Assignments; Amendments.

9.4.1 This Agreement, or any interest herein, shall not be assigned, transferred or otherwise encumbered, under any circumstances, by Consultant without the prior written consent of CRA, which consent may be withheld by the CRA in its sole and absolute discretion. This Agreement shall run to the CRA and its successors and assigns.

9.4.2 It is further agreed that no modification, amendment or alteration in the terms or conditions contained here shall be effective unless contained in a written document executed with the same formality and of equal dignity herewith and approved by the CRA Board.

9.5 No Contingent Fees. Consultant warrants that it has not employed or retained any company or person, other than a bona fide employee working solely for Consultant to solicit or secure this Agreement, and that it has not paid or agreed to pay any person, company, corporation, individual or form, other than a bona fide employee working solely for Consultant any fee, commission, percentage, gift, or other consideration contingent upon or resulting from the award or making of this Agreement. For the breach or violation of this provision, the CRA shall have the right to terminate the Agreement without liability at its discretion, to deduct from the contract price, or otherwise recover the full amount of such fee, commission, percentage, gift or consideration.
